ABINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

*CLASS OF NINETEEN SEVENTY EIGHT
ABINGTON, MASSACHUSETTS 02351*

Some of the greatest moments of our lives have been here at Abington High School. We hope that in the years to come this book will enable you to recall all the memorable experiences and people you came to know.

We would like to thank everyone who helped with the production of this book. Also, we would like to extend our deepest appreciation to Mr. Stanton for his aid and "amusing" wit which kept us and the yearbook going.

We wish you the best of luck in the future and hope that the yearbook will bring back the special times with special people.

The Editors:
Jane Clawson
Cheryl Cashman
Betty Nery

Adviser: Mr. Stanton

Miss Tracy

The senior class would like to thank Miss Tracy for all the help and support she has given us during our years at A.H.S. We will always remember her ever-present smile, and we wish her the best of luck in her future endeavors.

Mr. Bryon

We also extend a warm welcome to Mr. Bryon in his new position as principal of A.H.S. His unbounded enthusiasm for the school is just one of his contributions to the many memories we have of our high school years.

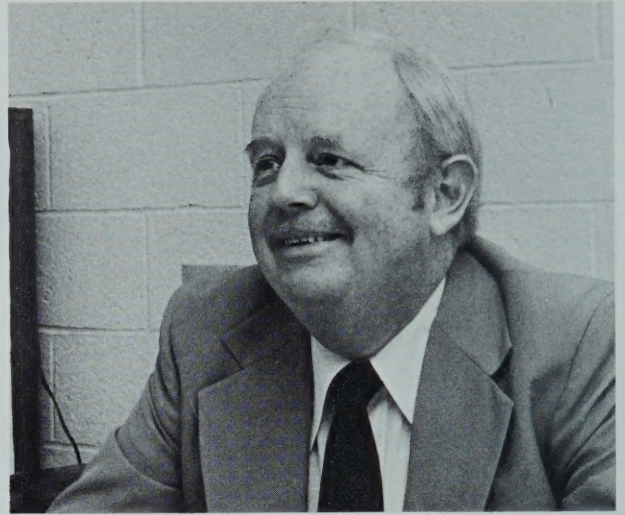

Mrs. Leonard

Her smile always brightened the cafeteria, and her presence will be sadly missed by the entire school.

During the years following high school graduation, you may look forward to growing in many different dimensions—intellectually, socially and emotionally. Some of this growth will be rewarding and some painful. You will quickly experience one particularly effective stimulus to personal growth: there will be no one to stand between you and the consequences of your actions.

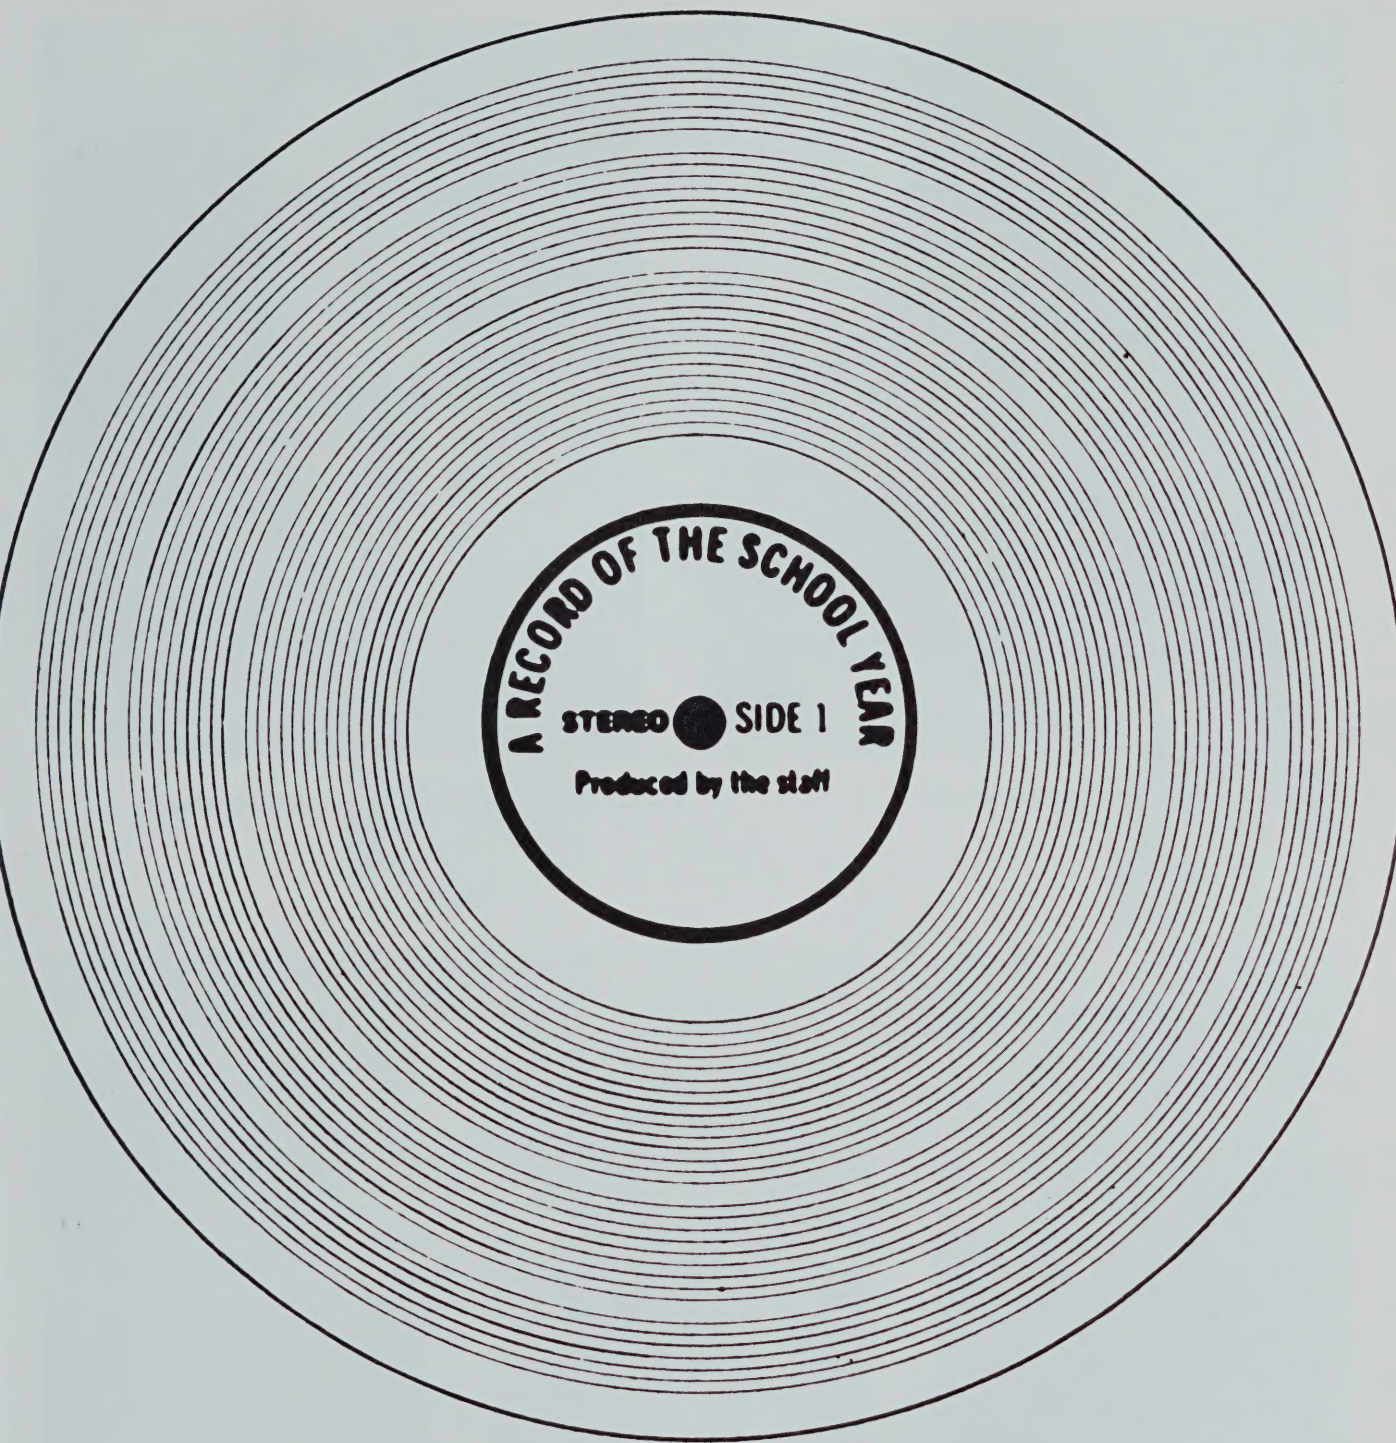

I know that you look forward to the challenges of adult life. You will encounter many tests of your stability and personal maturity. By continuing the quest for excellence that you began when you entered school—and I refer to the whole extraordinary variety of intellectual, social, aesthetic, moral, and spiritual excellence where man seeks and occasionally achieves—I believe that you can grow to the intellectual and emotional maturity that makes meaningful and lasting moral commitments a possibility.

Principal: Mr. Paul E. Byron

On behalf of the faculty, administration, and entire staff of Abington High School, I wish you a happy and rewarding life that will have dignity and meaning for you.

Dear Classmates,

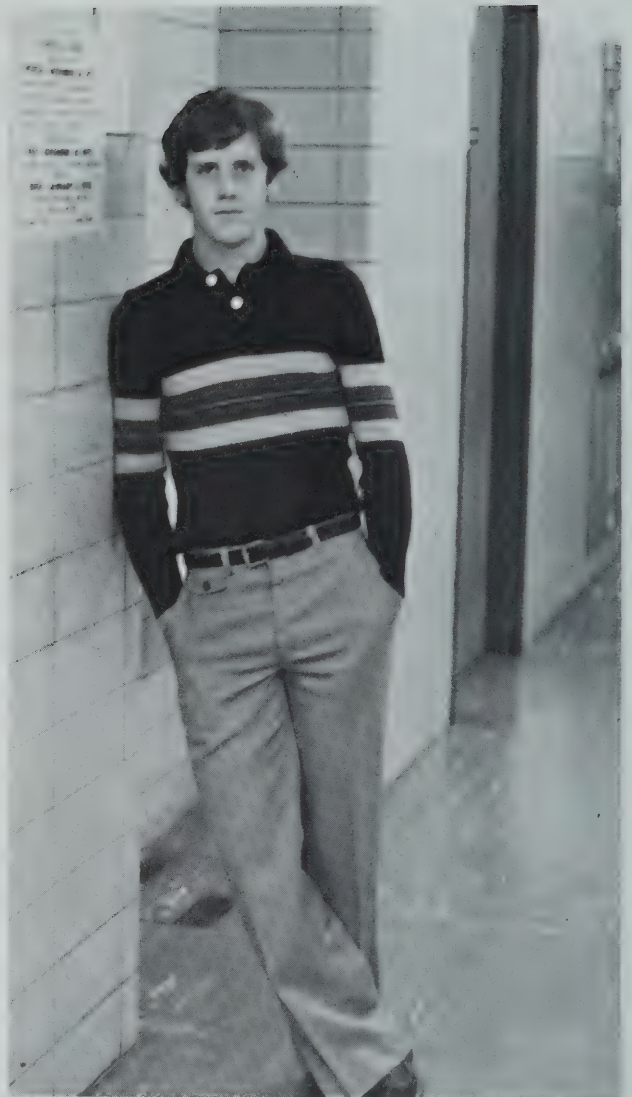

In this, our final year in the Abington school system, I have the pleasure of being your class president. We all know it is a year that will pass all too quickly. Soon we will take leave of this school and each other.

Most of us were born the year John F. Kennedy was inaugurated. We spent our early childhood growing up in a country which was rapidly changing. Historians now tell us the generation gap peaked in those years. Kent State, assassinations, the women's liberation movement, and scandal in Washington marked the sixties and early seventies. But most of us were insulated from those events. While the country endured drastic changes, our lives were fairly secure in small town schools, sports, churches, and with protective parents.

We are graduating in more stable times for this country. Ours is a world more settled than that of those students who left this school ten years ago. And yet, we know each one of us will face difficulties in the years ahead. Those years will hold success for some, failure for others, and average lives for most of us.

I wish each one of you the courage, fortitude, and honesty to make the best of the years that will follow our graduation from Abington High School.

Most Sincerely,
Steve Madden

33. We leave wondering whether Mr. Garris really puts grades in his rank book.
34. We leave Ruth Lonsdale thinking "she's the girl with the hair."
35. We leave a few seniors still belonging to the V.A.
36. Jane leaves Mr. Porter the arrow she shot herself with in archery.
37. We, um, leave, um, Mrs. Donovan, um, um, um ...
39. We leave our favorite expression, "WAAF", and our favorite activity, "Whippen."
40. We leave Mr. D. Campbell never knowing that he has been everyone's "Uncle Dave."
41. We leave wondering where the senior spirit trophy went.
42. We leave a few senior girls changing a flat after the Hanover game.
43. Cindy Libby leaves Mr. Porter and Mr. McMann eight tons of cakes, cookies, brownies, candy, ...

WILL

44. We leave Mr. Paster dancing with Lorraine at the Prom.
45. We leave still calling Yvette "Marlise" and Marlise "Yvette."
46. We leave Mr. Louis still waiting to take a "Mojo" out to lunch.
47. We leave Mary a lifetime supply of music lessons for her singing at parties.
48. We leave the rally laughing at the Whitman cheerleaders and we leave some of our teachers thanks for the laugh.
49. We leave Debbie Durant challenging Mario Andretti to a race.
50. We leave Scusset Beach a little more cluttered.
51. We leave "Cote's" too easily.
52. We leave Rodney Danger Cotter saying, "I get no respect."
53. We leave Roul thinking he's cute when He's mad.
54. We leave Kim Wells driving a lot sooner than the rest of us.
55. We leave our Junior Prom without a party to go to afterwards.
56. Cathy, Jane, and Ann leave business booming at Smitty's.
57. We leave Mr. McMann thinking his hockey cheerleaders are angels.
58. We leave with a "Yippy Yi ... Yea!"
59. Mrs. Short leaves us before we leave her.
60. We leave Donna and Danny Morgan the best of luck.
61. We leave Scott and Jennifer, with their wide smiles, as the best imitation of Donny and Marie we've seen yet.
62. Michelle Comeau and Donna Tracy leave the majorettes finally getting their new uniforms.
63. We leave Sharon Sweeney with the best attendance record in the school.
64. The senior girls leave still drooling over Mr. McGrath and Mr. Kent.
65. We leave a bottle in the Middle of the gym floor and Colleen with a red face.
66. We leave the best of luck to those who are "fortunate" enough to have Mrs. Reilly for English, because they're going to need it.
67. We leave Park Ave., to move on to Chestnut Street, to finally end up behind the Police Station.
68. Donna, Sandie, and Patty leave H.B. a love note.
69. We leave for "Jack in the Box" with Jayne yelling, "Get me a Big Mac!"
70. We leave Choker on New Year's Eve - still waiting for the light to change.
71. Mrs. Beaton's sixth period sociology class leaves her with many laughs, but with many frustrating and embarrassing moments.
72. The senior girls leave Timmy Caplice with a great big kiss.
73. We leave never forgetting Carol Springhetti's hysterical laugh.
74. The senior girls leave Cliff a penny so that he can make it from a Ninety-Nine Cent Sale to Dollar Day.
75. We leave our best wishes to the Junior Class- May you be successful in all your future endeavors.
76. We leave many thanks to Mr. Byron for his understanding and friendship, and wish him the continuing success as the new principal of A.H.S.
77. We leave many thanks to Mr. Nash for his patience and thoughtfulness, and for making us the great class that we are to day.
78. Finally, we leave Abington High, more learned, more knowledgeable about the world around us, ready to face anything that comes our way. Thank you, all the teachers of A.H.S.

CLASS HISTORY

Freshman Year

Our first days of high school were filled with dismay.
We were awfully afraid of losing our way.
But we soon got over our nervous fidgets
Enough to make friends with the kids from St. Bridget's.
The upperclassmen we highly respected.
Paul, Karen, Brenda, and John were elected.
We held a flea market where our old stuff was bought.
Our first rally and dance we sure liked alot.
That was the year our class jackets were sold,
And we proudly wore our green and our gold.
Hat Day, Clash Day, and Switch Day were fun,
And the 50's day we proudly won.
Our class outing and skip day were held by the ocean
As we all ran to Nantasket with our tanning lotion.
We couldn't wait till June was no more
As we gladly left the good old first floor.

Sophomore Year

We now moved our domain to the second floor,
No longer as freshmen but now as sophomores.
We elected Paul and Sara, Janine and Dale.
With these kids as leaders, we just couldn't fail.
That was the rally we should have won
But giving trophies to sophomores just isn't done.
Our rings of silver and gold we bought,
But what we ordered wasn't what some of us got.
We loved to party at Arnold's Rock
And to this place we often flocked.
We had a good time at the Christmas Bazaar
With John Morton as St. Nick, the biggest Star.
When scabies were thought to be about,
We decided that we should all walk out.
The fire alarm rang and a bomb scare or two,
With excitement like that, the day really flew.
We left that June without shedding a tear
For we knew we'd be upperclassmen on returning next year.

Junior Year

We now made our way to the third floor.
Being underclassmen was a problem no more!
Led by Steve, Sara, Cathy, and Kate
We knew this year would be just great.
With so many different things to do
It seemed to us that the year really flew.
Most of us got our licenses at last.
The trouble of walking was a thing of our past.
We gathered at Park Ave, under the lights,
Where we spent our Friday and Saturday nights.
A flea market, a dance, a Christmas bazaar
Gave us some money, needed to go far.
Rallies and prom committees, we had many,
Collecting and begging, to save every penny.
Our Prom was at Lantana, with "If" as our theme
And the court was picked, with Anita as queen.
We travelled to Scusset the very next day.
We had so much fun on this 14th of May.
Numerous parties were held the year through
No matter what, we still carried our brew.
Our year soon ended, as we looked toward the fall
When we'd be Seniors, Rulers of all!

Senior Year

Looking over the three years past
We sure went through hell to be seniors at last.
Senior pictures in summer sure took a lot,
Especially during the heat wave — man, was it hot!
Class Day in May will show a few stars,
We'll tell jokes, tap dance, or sing a few bars.
The Reception is planned for the beginning of June,
And our friendships are being challenged too soon.
The end is near, and so we must part,
With tears in our eyes, and love in our hearts.
As graduation ends, and we go our own ways
We'll always remember our Abington High days.
We've just begun, we're the Class of '78",
As our lives go on, there'll be more Golden Greats.

*"MEMORIES"
ABINGTON
HIGH SCHOOL*

"Memories in bits and pieces"

TOMORROW

We have not walked the paths of others,
Instead we've made our own,
Paths leading to individuality,
Paths to take up on our own.
With these four years behind us,
The times of laughter, times of tears
We move onward into life, headstrong, forgetting our fears.

As we leave we sincerely hope
That all we've learned and done,
Will help us to understand the world we live in,
And help us to better it for others
to come.

We've sought a new idealism by deciding to change the trend
You'll see us walking hand and hand, together both now and then.
We won't promise to bring world peace,
Or feed all of the starving people,
Or finally prove to the hard-headed people that everyone is born equal,
We'll probably never find solutions to pollution, hate or poverty-
But we'll reach out and perhaps even find
That in our hands we've always held the key.
